

National Conference on Pavement Management

May 6-9, 2007
Norfolk, Virginia

PDF version of flyer (0.3 mb)

Sponsored by the Federal Highway Administration
Hosted by Virginia Department of Transportation, Virginia Transportation Research Council, and Virginia Tech Transportation Institute
Share your experiences, ask questions, and participate in open discussions with colleagues and experts in the Pavement Management Community.
A dazzling array of Pavement Management Providers and Equipment Vendors will be available with displays and discussions.
Registration will be available beginning in October 2006

Mark your Calendar Now!

Key Topics:

- History and development of Pavement Management (1965 to date)
- Case Studies: Advanced Pavement Management
- Engineering Applications of Pavement Management Data
- Integrating PMS and Pavement Preservation Programs
- Using PMS data to calibrate the New Mechanistic/Empirical Design Guide
- Pavement Management Systems /Asset Management Programs - Where does the future lie?
- Predicting Remaining Service Life for Pavement Management
- Forensics Analysis using Pavement Management
- Defining Pavement Performance Specifications with Pavement Management Data
- Defining Warranty Requirements using Pavement Management
- Validating New Materials Performance with a Pavement Management System
- Quality Control / Quality Assurance - Pavement Management Interface
- Innovation and Research Needs for future Pavement Management Systems
- What are the Education and Training Needs for modern Pavement Management?
- New Technology - What's really useful?

Who should attend?

Administrators at all levels of State DOTs and Highway Agencies, as well as FHWA, Counties and Cities; Pavement and Asset Management Professionals; Pavement Design and Maintenance Engineers; Educators in the Transportation field; Vendors and Providers of Pavement Management Services and Equipment.

For more information

Conference Website: <http://www.conted.vt.edu/PavementManagement07/>

Contacts:

- Charles Larson, Virginia DOT 804-662-7526
- Dr. Gerardo Flintsch, Virginia Tech 540-231-9748
- Alice Clawson, Virginia Tech 540-231-4849
- Thomas Van, FHWA 202-366-1341